Has a Marriage License been obtained? _____

The bride and groom must appear together at the office of a South Carolina county probate judge and file a written application. There is a 24-hour waiting period after the application is filed before the license can be picked up and the marriage can take place. Those 18 years old or older do not need parental consent. No blood test or physical exam is required. South Carolina residency is not required. No proof of divorce is required. The fee for a marriage license varies from county to county. A South Carolina marriage license is valid only for marriages performed in South Carolina. There is no expiration date for a South Carolina marriage license. For those planning to apply for their license at the Beaufort County government center on Hilton Head Island, please note that the office is only open Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9:00 AM-4:00 PM by appointment only. For information call (843) 255-5850.

For those who are planning a beach wedding on Hilton Head Island, please note that a permit is required from the town prior to the ceremony. Call (843) 342-4580 for information.
